County to host land use sessions

Staff report

The Taos News, 12/4/2013

Taos County will host community work sessions to glean public opinion on the proposed land use regulation ordinance. Among changes are extended periods for certain types of land use permits and new requirements with regard to water studies before a property owner can develop on land.

A copy of the ordinance is available at TaosCounty.org.

The community work session schedule is as follows:

First work session (focusing on central Taos County): Monday, Dec. 9 at 6 p.m., Taos County Commission Chambers, 105 Albright St., Taos.

Second work session (focusing on neighborhoods): Thursday, Dec. 12 at 6 p.m., Taos County Commission Chambers, 105 Albright St., Taos.

Third Work Session (focusing on northern Taos County): Thursday, Dec. 16 at 6 p.m., Village of Questa Town Hall, 2500 Old Highway 3, Questa.

Fourth Work Session (focusing on southern Taos County): Wednesday, Dec. 18 at 6 p.m., Penasco Community Center, 14316 State Road 75, Pe-asco.

Board of Commissioners Work Study: Tuesday, Jan. 14 at 9 a.m., Taos County Commissioners Chambers, 105 Albright Street, Taos; (tentative, check Taos County website).
